Spanish Affairs.

The revolution of September, 1868 drove Queen Isabella over the border into France, and left Spain without a monarch. The affairs of the nation were entrusted to a provisional government and a parliament. Serrano was at last made Regent, whilst Prim apparently held the reins of power. Two or three rebellions against the provisional government have been attempted in the interests of the Republicans, the Carlists, and of Isabella; but all have been suppressed. In the West Indies, the revolt of Cuba has been a bloody struggle; but there Prim's government has also succeeded; for Gen. Grant's recent message to Congress denies that there is anything, worthy the name of revolutionary government in Cuba. Prim, Serrano, Espartero, and the other Spanish chiefs, have not only had their hands full of work in suppressing revolts in Cadiz, Barcelona, and in Cuba, and in finding money to meet the ordinary and extraordinary expenses of the nation, but they have been pushed to their wits end to find a King for Spain. Though a large republican element sends representatives to the Cortes, yet it is not strong enough to exercise a controling influence over the monarchical party. The nation as a great whole has favored the election of a King, and in all propability is unfited for a higher, a republican form of Government. The Cortes doubtless represented fairly the monarchical bias of the Spanish people, when it elevated Serrano to a Regency, and in that act clearly indicated that the form of royalty would be preserved, till the time arrived to place a King on the throne. The difficulty however has been to find a a prince who would accept the throne, be acceptable to a majority of the Spanish people, and at the same time to the chief ruler of France. All Europe and Brazil has been ransacked to find a suitable candidate. The Braganzas rejected the offer of the throne though it held out the prospect of the ultimate union of Spain and Portugal. Victor Emmanuel refused his assent to one of the House of Piedmont being seated on the throne of Charles the Fifth. The Carlist party was too weak to place their candidate on the throne. Recently, the most likely candidates, apparently, for the throne were the Duke de Montpensier, and the Prince of Asturias, son of the ex Queen. Montpensier, brother-in-law of Isabella, has a party; but as a Bourbon he was objectionable to a majority of the Spanish people; and to France because he belonged to the house of Orleans. Isabella's cause being hopeless, her recent formal abdication in the presence of Napoleon, in favor of the Prince of Asturias, seemed to indicate that the young Bourbon Prince would be restored to the throne of his ancestors. But that is now hopeless, unless he is backed by French and Austrian soldiery. No later than April, Prim said that he had done all that he could to put an end to the interregnum, but had failed to find a King worthy of the Spanish nation. He added, however, that the Cortes would not separate till the election of a King had taken place. The formal abdication of Isabella seems to have hastened the selection of a King. For, notwithstanding all the previous rumors, there appears to be a certainty now that a prince has been found who has not only accepted, but is acceptable to three fourths of the members of the Cortes; and this prince, to the surprise of all, is a Prussian—Prince Leopold, a Hohen-Zollern. The excitement in France shows that Louis Napoleon and his ministry have been completely outgeneralled, and that Bismarck and Prim have triumphed. The language of the Duke de Grammont, the French Minister of Foreign Affairs, in the Corps Legislatif, that the negotiations had been conducted in secret, shows how galling to French pride is the selection of a Prussian Prince. But the threat that France, "under no pretext would permit a German Prince to be placed on the throne of Charles the Fifth," means, if it means anything, a war between Prussia and Spain on the one hand, and France and Austria on the other. So positive an utterance from the French Foreign Minister can be followed by only one of two courses—the withdrawal of the German Prince, or a war. The latter seems to be more likely than the former. In a few days we shall hear further details. Till then we shall look anxiously for news from Europe.

IMMIGRANTS.—By the arrival of the Pelican yesterday we noticed several families who have come here, as we are informed from Australia, with the intention of settling on farms, if they can procure them. From their appearance they are just the kind of people we want here, and we hope the Government will offer them every inducement to keep them in the Colony.

ARRIVED.—The Flying Squadron arrived at Honolulu on June 16th, 17 days from Victoria. The steamer Wonga Wonga arrived at the Islanks and connected with the Ajax for San Francisco. The Wonga Wonga brought 60 cabin passengers from Auckland, New Zealand.

CONSTITUTED BY SPECIAL ACTS OF PARLIAMENT.

THE FORTY-FOURTH ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING OF THE STANDARD LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY was held at Edinburgh on Tuesday, the 26th April, 1870.
ANDREW WOOD, Esq. M D., in the Chair.

THE MANAGER submitted to the Meeting,—

The Annual Report on the Books and Accounts by the Auditor of the Company, certifying that he had found the whole Accounts accurately stated and properly vouched.

THE FOLLOWING ARE EXTRACTS FROM THE REPORT:—

THE PROGRESS OF THE COMPANY DURING THE PAST YEAR HAS BEEN of a satisfactory character, and it is a matter of congratulation that during a period of great distress and dissatisfaction in the Assurance world, the business of this Company has increased, not decreased.

THE INCOME OF THE COMPANY received during the year ending 15th November 1869, amounted to £710,428, 16s. 3d.

THE INVESTED FUNDS, as shown on the Balance-Sheet, which follows, had reached the sum £4,284,648 7s. 3d.

THESE are the Results of the year; but the following additional particulars as to the Company may also be interesting:—

OREGON ITEMS.—The good people of Portland are complaining of the hot weather..... The Bates Troupe are still playing in Portland to full houses.....One of the employees of the Willamette Iron Works had an eye badly injured by a flying spark of iron.....A very heavy business is being done at Salem in agricultural machinery.....Southern Oregon papers report considerable injury to the hay crops from recent rains.....The railroad grade will be finished as far as Salem in a few days.....A couple who were married about three years ago at sea, have been remarried at Salem again, on account of a late decision of Judge Deady, that such marriages were illegal.....Five hundred German immigrants are expected in Oregon..... A large circus troupe are expected in Portland in about five days. They will come to Victoria.

FROM NANAIMO.—The steamer Emma Capt. Ettershank, arrived from Nanaimo and way ports, on Saturday evening at 5 o'clock, with about 15 passengers, a lot of farming produce and live stock. Among the passengers were Mrs. Owens and family, Mr. Jerome and W. Woodcock, from the Skeena river. The Good Templars of Nanaimo had a large picnic on the 4th inst. The steamer Emma towed the Noord Breband from the freestone quarry to the coal chute to load with coal, having been chartered by the company. The Shooting Star left on Friday for San Francisco, with a full cargo.

CRICKET MATCH.—There will be a cricket match to-day at Colwood, between the Eleven from the Zealous and Eleven of Victorians, commencing at 10 o'clock. The Zealous Band will be on the ground during the day. The Victorians are as follows: Messrs. Bacon, (Captain), W. Wilson, Plummer, Marshall, Howard, R. Green, C. Green, Richardson, Theakstone, Gibbon and Good. The match will be the farewell one of the Zealous Eleven.

THE MAYNE ISLAND MURDER.—On Saturday morning a deputation consisting of the four settlers from the Islands adjacent to Plumper pass, called on the Governor to see if they could get any protection for life and property against the Indians, who seem to be very treacherous in that section of the Colony. The Governor appointed the evening for them to see him. When the evening came they went again to the Government Buildings, when they were politely told that they must put their grievances in writing and send them to their Royal Master, and if he thinks the affair of any importance he will afford them the necessary protection sometime or another. In the meantime they can return to their homes and protect themselves the best way they can until they hear from James Bay. We presume that was the easiest way of bluffing the settlers off; and sending them back to their lonely homes, without any assurance of such reasonable protection as the Government can render—and exposed to being shot at any time by the hand of some unknown savage. A good inducement for settlers to come to the Colony, indeed!

RETURN OF MR. HOSKING.—Yesterday afternoon Mr. Hosking of the Temperance Hotel, who has been out with a party prospecting in the neighborhood of Jordon river returned. The party started from here about two weeks ago and proceeded to Leech river, from there they went in the direction of Jordon river, but misted the trail and struck San Juan river where they prospected a short time and found two colors to the pan. They left this river and prospected another stream lying between San Juan and Sooke river, called the Sherringham; here they found nothing to pay. Mr. Hosking reports having passed over 3,000 acres of clear and beautiful farming land. The party all returned to Leech river, where they all stopped with the exception of Mr. Hosking, who returned yesterday.

FROM SKEENA RIVER.—Mr. W. H. Woodcock, who left the mouth of Skeena river in a canoe, 18 days ago, arrived from Nanaimo on Saturday evening, by the steamer Emma. Mr. Woodcock ascended the river about 170 miles. All the Peace river miners, with the exception of Mitchell and a few others, have gone into the mines. The weather had been very rainy. The schooners Nanaimo Packet and Caroline were outside Nanaimo harbor on their way to Victoria. A large number of northern canoes are on their way down. There is no later news from the Mitchell party, as to the discovery of gold on Ackwellgett branch of the Skeena.

FROM SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamship Pelican, Capt. Harrison, arrived from San Francisco yesterday afternoon, with about 75 passengers, among whom were D. D. Field, father to Mrs. Musgrave and Dudley Evans, Esq., who has been to the Eastern States, and seems to have enjoyed his trip. The Pelican left San Francisco last Tuesday, at 4 o'clock, p. m., experienced fine weather the entire passage. She brought 26 mail bags and 85 tons of freight.

CHANGES.—Mr. J. Hayes, who has been for a long time chief officer of the steamer California, has, we are glad to learn, been promoted to Captain, vice N. L. Rogers, who has been transferred to the George S. Wright, for the Sitka trade. Mr. Weulder, formerly freight clerk on the California, is appointed to the Wright, as purser. Mr. Peters takes his place on the California as freight clerk.

FROM PORTLAND.—The N. P. T. Co.'s steamship California, John Hayes master, arrived outside the harbor yesterday at 1:30 o'clock, with about 20 passengers and a mail and express. At 4 o'clock she left for Puget Sound where she will land her freight and return here about Wednesday evening.

SHIPPING.—The ship Alpha left Esquimalt yesterday morning, but afterwards anchored in the Royal Roads on account of there being no wind at the time. The brig Robert Cowan was towed last night by the steamer Emma to Sooke, where she will load for the Hawaiian Islands with lumber, pickled salmon.

DEPARTURES.—To-morrow morning the following steamers will take their departure: At 7 o'clock, a. m. the steamer Emma will leave for Nanaimo and way ports; at 10 o'clock the Enterprise will leave for the Mainland, and at 11 o'clock, the Olympia will leave for Puget Sound.

European.

PARIS, July 7.—The Minister of Foreign Affairs received information of a massacre of French at Pekin. Instructions will be immediately sent to the commander of the French fleet in Chinese waters that no special expedition will be dispatched, as the naval force is deemed sufficient to vindicate the outraged dignity of France.

LONDON, July 7.—The Post says the Great Powers will be disposed to sanction any energetic movement of France for the punishment of the Chinese. It is thought the press is semi-officially inspired to speak for the British Government.

Eastern States.

NEW YORK, July 8.—There was a large meeting of Cuban sympathisers last evening, on the occasion of a gift distribution in aid of the Cuban cause. Gens. Jordan and Collansing made speeches.

CHICAGO, July 8.—The Tribune's Washington special says there is no foundation for the story that the President has thought of removing Bancroft. Both the President and Secretary Fish wish him to remain where he is.

The Times' special says Gen. Sherman had an interview with the President relative to Indian troubles. Sherman believes the Sioux have determined to go on a raiding expedition along the frontier of Wyoming and Dakota, and that the military posts should be strengthed. Per contra, the Bureau does not believe that a general Indian raid is probable. Its conclusion is based on the dispatches of Quaker agents.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—In the Senate the memorial of California importers against oppressive features of the income tax was presented by Casserly and tabled.

It is believed that the name of the new minister to England will go to the Senate next week. Probably the President will convene the Senate in executive session on the Monday following the adjournment of Congress. The President has withdrawn the nomination of Roots as minister to Chili. The rumor of Fish's resignation is untrue. He remains at the request of the President. He did not desire the English mission, and another gentleman will be nominated soon.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES

California.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 7.—The ship Jane Sproat finished loading the third cargo of wheat this season, to-day, at Vallejo, and the Collsock commences loading the fourth to-morrow.

The Willow property sale was resumed to-day, and after about $20,000 had been realized, making with the sales last week $157-000 worth, the balance was withdrawn, not justifying a continuance of the sale.

There is a decided sensation among the promoters of the Mercantile Library Lottery, and parties who have been selling tickets since it has been made known that the matter is to be brought before the Grand Jury of the new Muncipal Court, and as Judge Stanley's language in his charge to the jury is understood to have pointed directly at the Library Lottery when he said: "The Act to prohibit lotteries, raffles, gift enterprises, and other schemes of like character, approved April 24th, 1868, makes it my duty to give its provisions specially in charge to every juror to inquire into all violations of the same." After citing its provisions concludes: "This act stands upon the statute-book irrepealed, and is as much the law of the land as any other statute. If you find that any of its provisions have been violated you are to take such action as is required of you by law in all other cases of a violation of the criminal law, regardless of the purpose of such violation, or the character of the persons offending." As nearly all the brokers in the city have dealt in the tickets and are liable to pay the buyers fifty dollars each, if the law is decided to be still valid. Much anxiety is felt on the subject, and some of the brokers announce their determination not to sell any more until the question is decided.

The alleged frauds in the 1st Ward election returns is also to be investigated by the Grand Jury.

A private letter from New York says we have in this city one hundred firmes selling wines manufactured here, under the California Title, most of them miserable compounds unworthy the name of wine, and this abortion is retailed and is injuring the sale of the genuine.

The mist this evening, praticall, amounted to a light shower.

A. S. Simpson, who was shot by Jas. C. Cartinell, on the 4th, will likely recover.

The residence of Wm Newhall, at Santa Clara, was burned on the 4th. Most of the furniture was saved.
